The resolution on the passing of our honorary President Rev N-C MacFarlane was read and approved —

Feb 24th 19.34

It is with deep regret and sincere sorrow that this society learned of the passing of our honorary President the Rev. Norman C MacFarlane Edinburgh Scotland Although our connections with Mr MacFarlane was brief the memory of his kindly cheerfull and gentle face will long be remembered Mr MacFarlane was born at Crobeg Lochs Lewis his parents both were remarkable in kindness and christian benvolence in his boy hood the family moved to Stornoway his becoming inspector of poor, he assisted his father in the office for some time before going to college.

Mr MacFarlane upon the death of his father left college to fulfil his duties until he was relieved by his brother John he then left Stornoway to finish his preparations for the church

Beloved by his people and by all his associations he was active throughout his long life in the work of his church Although he had access to and moved in the best society in Edinburgh he full owed his master in being a friend to the humble and a comfort to the poor Norman C MacFarlane never forgot the Island of his birth or its people one moment in his company and conversation would convince one of his intense love for the Lewis people nor did he deem it derogotory to his principles to level himself with a group of Lewis folkes and join in their assembles

He who knew him only a little while will always have tender memories of him Infinitely more will his life companions and his family miss him but they have the surety that he has gone to his eternal happiness and although our mortal eyes will see him not again he has left behind him works that preach eloquent sermons

Therefore at a regular meeting of the Lewis Society of Detroit held in the St Andrews Hall 431 E Congress St on Feb 24th 1934 it is resolved that this tribute to his memory be spread on our minutes and a copy be send to his sorrowing widow.

To the President and members of the Lewis Society.

Gentlemen,

On behalf of the bereaved members of the family of Roderick Maclean and myself, his brother, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing to you, our sincere gratitude for the kindness, expressions of sympathy and other help extended to us in our recent trouble, the loss of husband, father and brother.

One can never realize it until they are placed in a similar position, similar to which I and my brothers family found ourselves.

I am at a loss for words to express myself clearly, and thank you for your kindness. I extend to your organization my best wishes for your success.

I Remain,
Sincerely Yours.
Murdo Maclean.
